3. Rights of data subject:

Rights of data subject based on legal basis and their explanations

Right to information - Data Subject shall have the right to find out the way personal data is handled before data processing begins

Right to rectification - Data Subject is entitled to request the correction of his/her personal data if stored data by data controller do not correspond to reality and he/she can prove it.

Right of access – Data Subject shall have the right to request for personal data stored about him/her from the data controller.

Right to erasure ('right to be forgotten') - The data subject has the right to request the permanent deletion of his / her data, unless the data processing is based on the performance of a contract, the fulfillment of a legal obligation or a public authority license.

Right to withdrawal of consent - If data processing is based on consent, Data Subject may withdraw consent previously given at any time. Acceptance of withdrawal request may also mean deletion of data but if another legal basis supports data processing, data processing will only end in relation to the specific data processing purpose. Right to restriction of processing - If the data subject does not consider the controller authorized, they can request the suspension of data processing during the investigation.

Right to data portability - The data subject shall have right to request their personal data stored in digital tabular form. Right to review of automated individual decision-making - Data Subject may have the right to request for manual review of all data processing where data controller has applied automated decision-making with legal effect on data subject.

4. Exercise of rights of data subject

If data subject has submitted a request to the data controller related to exercising of his/her rights described in point 3, the data controller shall respond without delay and at the latest within one month of receipt of the request, and also shall inform data subject regarding the measures taken in case of his/her request. If it is necessary, this deadline can be extended by another two months.

If the controller does not take action on the request of the data subject, the controller shall inform the data subject without delay and at the latest within one month of receipt of the request of the reasons for not taking action and on the possibility of lodging a complaint with a supervisory authority and seeking a judicial remedy.
